

Bridgerton Afternoon Tea Discussion Questions
June 8, 2024

1. How have you consumed the Bridgerton stories? Book? TV Series? Both? Do you have a preference if you've done both? Would you do the one you haven't yet if you have only done one?
2. Do you have a favorite story/couple of what you have seen or read? Why does this one resonate with you?
3. What drew you to the Bridgerton world in the first place?
4. What in the first part of season 3 shocked you the most? Made you the most excited for the second half? Most nervous?
5. Do you think that Penelope can keep up her secret side hustle as Lady Whistledown for much longer? Do you want her to?
6. If you've read the book, do you like the changes they've made to the TV series for Colin and Penelope's story? Or from the other season's we've seen so far?
7. Which Bridgerton sibling do you most want to see be the main focus of the next season?
8. Of all the Bridgerton children, which would you wish to be your true love match?
