

Authors Speak Series: Drawing as a Sacred Activity

Tuesdays in November at 1:30 pm

Madison Public Library, in partnership with NewBridge and Goodman Community Center, invites you to join a five-week drawing workshop with author and artist Heather C. Williams.

Come embark on a journey of self-discovery through art as Heather helps you become more acquainted with the art of Observational drawing.

All drawing workshops are held via Zoom. You may join using your own device, or contact a participating location* to join using a borrowed device.

*Participating locations: Alicia Ashman Library, Goodman South Madison Library, Meadowridge Library, Pinney Library, Sequoya Library, NewBridge Madison-North, or Goodman Community Center.

Registration required.

Visit www.madisonpubliclibrary.org/events for more details.

Per order of Public Health Madison & Dane County, masks are required in all library indoor spaces for those age 2 and up.

www.madisonpubliclibrary.org

A member of the South Central Library System

