

FREE

History Comes Alive

Library Name

Address/Phone

people • culture • community

AFRICAN AMERICAN

Nellie Stone Johnson
Civil Rights Activist/
Entrepreneur

George Bonga
Trader/Diplomat/
Entrepreneur

Archie Givens, Sr.
Real Estate
Entrepreneur

Gordon Parks
Musician/Photographer/
Film-Maker/Author/Composer

Frederick McKinley Jones
Inventor/
Mechanical Engineer

Fredrick L. McGhee
Lawyer/
Civil Rights Leader

Lena O. Smith
The first African American
Female Licensed Lawyer

Cecil Newman
Publisher/
Civil Rights Activist

The Minnesota African American Museum and Cultural Center • info@maamcc.org • www.maamcc.org

Frederick McKinley Jones

Sunday, June 26, 2-3 p.m.

African American men and women shaped not just Minnesota, but the entire nation. Their history comes alive in this series of interactive dramatic reenactments. Meet Frederick McKinley Jones, a prolific black inventor with more than 60 inventions.

Presented in Collaboration with Minnesota African American Museum and Cultural Center. Funded by Minnesota's Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund.

Hennepin County
Library

www.hclib.org

HCL 12/5/2016