

Book Crawl Trivia:

Instructions: Each round will consist of 3 questions. Questions will get progressively harder as the rounds go on, which means they will also be worth more points. After the question is asked, you will have approximately one minute to answer and bring your answers to the table. There is no reward for being the first, so there is no rush. We want this to be a fair game, so please do not use phones or shout out the answers. If we see you using your phone, your team is disqualified for that question. There will be a break after round 3 and round 6 for you to get up, stretch, use the bathroom, etc, but if you need to get up before then, please wait until the question has been answered to return to your seat. Don't forget to tip your servers and bartenders!
